

HOW TO PACK FOR AN EPIC FAMILY SKI TRIP: CHECKLIST

marlameridith.com

Here's what you will need for each person skiing or boarding.

Try to pack as much as you can so you don't have to go hunting for items at the last minute.

For quantities, consider how many days you will be traveling. You can always wash as you go. The key to successful comfort on the slopes is in the layers.

SKI & SNOWBOARD CLOTHING

- waterproof shell or ski jacket
- light weight down or fleece jacket
- light weight down or fleece vest
- waterproof ski pants
- base layer tops, wool or synthetic
- base layer bottoms, wool or synthetic
- sweaters or fleece tops
- winter wool beanie
- a few pairs of wool socks
- neck gaiters (Always have a backup in your pocket, they can get wet!)
- waterproof & insulated gloves and mittens

ESSENTIALS

- skis/snowboard
- skis/snowboard boots
- poles
- goggles
- goggle & sunglasses shammy
- well fitted helmet
- hand & boot warmers
- sunglasses
- high SPF waterproof sunscreen
- lip balm with SPF
- water/hydration backpack
- snacks (these can go in pockets for little kids)
- ski training harness for the little ones
- ski & lesson passes!
- a lanyard or something to attach your pass to your jacket
- ID card
- trail map

FOR APRES

- a change of clothes
- slippers or snow boots
- tote bag

ADDITIONAL ITEMS

-
-
-